

Monmouth Arts Teen Arts Festival

General Guidelines for All Disciplines

General Guidelines:

- Students must be 13-19 years old.
- The schedule and time limits will be strictly followed. Be early/on-time to each evaluation.
- Students may request multiple adjudications as the schedule allows. All students of the festival are entitled to at least one adjudication. Multiple requests for adjudication from the same student may be permitted depending on the schedules each year. Students will not be allowed to receive more than 3 adjudications in a single day's schedule; however, a registered student would be allowed to participate in more adjudications on a second festival day. We hope to accommodate everyone's needs.
- Students in all disciplines will have the opportunity for selection to go on to the NJ State Teen Arts Festival for additional adjudication from professionals in the field. Only a handful of students from each discipline will be nominated from each county in NJ to go on to the state level.
Schools will be notified within one week following the festival if students receive a nomination for the state event. School registration for the state festival is completely separate from the Monmouth Arts Teen Arts Festival and is not coordinated by Monmouth Arts.

Brookdale Community College, Lincroft Campus:

- The Student Life Center will be open for students to purchase lunch (with a limited menu) or bring lunch from home.
- Each school is responsible for their students' behavior and safety. Chaperones should be aware of where students are during the festival.

- No student is to wander around campus or go into any other building than the designated buildings BCC has allowed Monmouth Arts to use.
- These are:
 - Larrison Hall (registration)
 - Center for the Visual Arts (CVA)
 - Performing Arts Center (PAC)
 - Monmouth Museum
 - Collins Arena (THURSDAY ONLY)
 - Student Life Center

Monmouth Arts:

- Plan to arrive between 8:15-8:45am. Evaluations begin promptly at 9:00am. The final schedule for adjudications will be posted online and sent via email.
- All schools will sign-in each morning (Thursday and Friday) at LARRISON HALL. You will receive one catalog per student at that time. A copy of the catalog will be available in advance on our website.
- Signs will be posted during the festival, directing students to buildings.
- Students will have an opportunity to sign up with their email to receive the Monmouth Arts bi-monthly newsletter and more information from Brookdale Community College, at their own discretion.
- Monmouth Arts reserves the right to take photographs and videos of students, all artwork and activities during the festival. These images will become the property of Monmouth Arts.
